Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 14 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
3. Claim 14 recites the limitation "the polling technique" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.
4. Claim 15 is indefinite for depending on claim 14.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1-9, 11, 12, 14, and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being fully anticipated by Alfaro et al., 5491418.
7. Alfaro et al. disclose connecting the first connector to an I/O connector on the diagnostic device, powering up and initializing the diagnostic device, and retrieving cable identification information unique to the physical layer features of the cable on line 50, on column 1, through line 20, on column 2; the data is indicative of the first and second connector and their configurations on column 3; the first connector includes a jumped pins as identification info on lines 55-60, on column 3; polling until successful communications is established in column 6; and one of the protocols is J1850 on line 65, on column 6.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claims 10, 13, and 16-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Alfaro et al., 5491418.

10. Alfaro et al. disclose the limitations as set forth above; and a lookup table on lines 5-15, on column 5. They do not disclose the second connector is a standard OBD-II connector or polling when one is present; and the diagnostic device includes a display, keyboard, computer readable mediums having all the protocol codes. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have a diagnostic device with any second connector, and containing any protocol software because it is a design choice. It would be obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have a diagnostic device with a display and keyboard because there needs to be input and output devices for a user to operate the device.
